

Ying Wa Girls' School

On April 22, we held a concert that raised HK$780,000. The money will be used to redevelop our Robinson Road campus in the Mid-levels. Around 150 students and 80 alumnae performed in front of more than 500 people at the China Congregational Church.

Set up by music teacher Victoria Wong Siu-to, the concert brought Ying Wa girls of all ages together to raise funds for the school.

The alumni choir did a great job, adding a lot of colour to the show. Student singers put on an impressive

The school choir performs for a crowd of more than 500 people performance, too, showcasing their hard work and talent. Our school's music teachers really helped all of the students to reach their full musical potential.