(2) Our school's measures for creating an inclusive learning environment included (one or more options can be selected)#:

- Translating major school circulars/important matters on school webpage
- Organising activities which promote cultural integration/raise sensitivity to diverse cultures and religions (please specify):

① Mr Vivek A. Mahbubani, a bilingual stand-up comedian performing both in Cantonese and English, shared with us how to find the funnier side of life during the morning assembly.

② The Global Exposure Team collaborated with the English Department to bring the staple Global Week event to S3 students in December. Students formed into different groups and explore the culture, history, and ways of life of a country of their choice. The event enabled students to learn a variety of different countries.

③ Joint programme with international NGO CEDAR in which visitors from different ethnic backgrounds come to share their stories with our S6 students.

- Providing opportunities for NCS students to learn and interact with their Chinese-speaking peers in school or outside school (e.g. engaging NCS students in uniform groups or community services) (please specify):

① NCS students have the opportunity to serve and take up leadership role in the School's Prefect Board, and act as a emcee in a school event, e.g Speech Day and School Concert.

② Participated in a Chinese relay writing scheme, students form teams to establish volumes of at least 30,000 Chinese characters. After adjudication, NCS team won second runner-up.

(3) Our school's measures for promoting home-school cooperation with parents of NCS student(s) included (one or more options can be selected)#:

- Appointing assistant(s) who can speak English and/or other language(s) facilitating the communication with parents of NCS student(s)
- Discussing the learning progress (including learning of Chinese) of NCS student(s) with their parents on a regular basis
- Providing parents of NCS student(s) with information on school choices/further studies/career pursuits for their children
- Explaining to parents of NCS student(s) and emphasising the importance for their children to master the Chinese language

The support measures mentioned in Parts (1) to (3) above are for reference only. Depending on the different learning progress and needs of NCS student(s) of each school year, as well as allocation of school resources, our school will adjust the support measures concerned.]
