(2) Our school's measures for creating an inclusive learning environment included (one or more options can be selected)#:

- Translating major school circulars/important matters on school webpage
- Organising activities which promote cultural integration/raise sensitivity to diverse cultures and religions (please specify):

① The English Department hosted the Global Week for S3. Students undertook research projects to explore the culture, history of a country of their choice. They then designed and ran the country stalls to share with their fellow students. The event was an opportunity for students learning about diverse cultures that make up our global community.

② Talk by Rev Sunny Cheng from Watoto, shared with us how the importance of girls' education in Africa. The sharing enriched students' worldview and cultural awareness.

③ The & Social Development lined up an insightful talk Citizenship for students delivered by an alumna who has had unique personal experiences in four cultures, namely, Bangladesh, Philippine, Shanghai and Chaozhou.

- Providing opportunities for NCS students to learn and interact with their Chinese-speaking peers in school or outside school (e.g. engaging NCS students in uniform groups or community services) (please specify):

① NCS students have the opportunity to join in the English Drama, Basketball team, Dance team and organised the stall in the "Wellness Week"

② NCS students made Flower Board with other 25 junior form schoolmates after final exam, co-work with each other and know more about Chinese tradition arts and crafts.

(3) Our school's measures for promoting home-school cooperation with parents of NCS student(s) included (one or more options can be selected)#:

- Appointing assistant(s) who can speak English and/or other language(s) facilitating the communication with parents of NCS student(s)
- Discussing the learning progress (including learning of Chinese) of NCS student(s) with their parents on a regular basis, as well as explaining and emphasising the importance for their children to master the Chinese language as appropriate
- Providing parents of NCS student(s) with information on school choices/further studies/career pursuits for their children
